Re: Damian v. 5060 Auto Service, Inc. et al.
Case No.: 19 Civ. 9226 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

I am defendants' attorney in the instant action, and write to request an adjournment of the deadline for submitting fairness documents. Today was the deadline for submitting the papers, and the parties have been working diligently to prepare them. However, the covid-19 outbreak has decimated defendants' business – the number of customers parking in the subject garage has dropped off dramatically, and will likely drop of substantially more in light of the new prohibitions on restaurants and bars – and they cannot comply with the original payment schedule. Because of this, I contacted plaintiff's counsel to ask about restructuring the settlement payment schedule. Plaintiff's counsel did not reject my suggestion, and the two sides are currently negotiating regarding the number of payments, the amount of the individual payments, etc.

Accordingly, the parties are hereby requesting that the deadline for submitting fairness documents be adjourned by an additional thirty (30) days to allow us to agree to a new schedule and draft new documents. Plaintiff's counsel consents to the relief sought herein. This is the second request for an adjournment of the fairness papers' due date (the previous request was granted); we are not aware of any existing deadlines that will conflict with our request.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

GRANTED. By April 16, 2020, the parties shall submit their fairness materials.

SO ORDERED.
